MOTION TO RECONSIDER

1. Pro se plaintiff hereby requests court to reconsider his application to proceed In Forma Pauperis. Plaintiff has attached an online/PDF copy of his recent credit report. Plaintiff apologizes for not including this document in the original application. Clearly, the credit report reflects the dire need for the plaintiff to proceed in forma pauperis.

2. Plaintiff is still contacting attorneys for contingency representation, but many of the prior issues still exist. Small firms don't have the resources, large firms have; conflicts of interest, pending settlements or only interested in class actions.

3. Plaintiff was a commissioned real estate broker and has not worked in over 6 months. Plaintiff can not morally, ethically or legally be a party to selling dramatically over-priced real estate, regardless of representing sellers or buyers. Plaintiff's over-priced theory is supported by a Goldman Sach's study that concludes the California real estate market is headed for a 40% price correction.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER PLAINTIFF'S APPLICATION TO PROCEED IN FORMA
PAUPERIS C07-04108 JF - 1

1 4. After 20 years in the same profession plaintiff is actively looking
2 for work in other fields, but has been unsuccessful. Plaintiff has been told
3 by numerous "head hunters" that other industries do not want to receive
4 resumes from real estate and loan brokers. It is unclear when plaintiff will
5 find employment.

6 5. Plaintiff is talking with attorneys about filing for bankruptcy.
7 Plaintiff prefers not to file for bankruptcy and wants to pay his credit
8 debts.
